

Announcement

August 6, 2026

1. According to the announcement from the Physical Education Section of the Common Core Education Committee, the registration period for the first semester of the Adapted Physical Education program for the 115 academic year will be from August 31 to September 18, 2026. Students who are unable to participate in strenuous exercise due to illness, pregnancy, or other reasons should submit an application to the Health Center at the Heping or Gongguan campuses during the registration period and bring a medical certificate from a National Health Insurance-affiliated hospital or a disability certificate. Late applications will not be accepted.
2. The first class of the first semester of the 115 academic year Adapted Physical Education program will be held on September 11, 2026, in the Grand Dance Studio on the first floor of the gymnasium.
3. If you have any questions, please contact Ms. Zhang Wanying, Teaching Assistant for Physical Education Section of the Common Core Education Committee, at (02)7749-3139.

Student Affairs Health Center

